MEDIA ADVISORY

News conference to re-launch Alert Neighbor Program is TODAY

Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs and Alderman Russell W. Stamper, II are set to re-launch the Alert Neighbor Program during a news conference TODAY - Wednesday, July 6. The news conference will take place at 2 p.m. at the lot adjacent to 915 W. North Ave. In the event of inclement weather, the press conference will be held at City Hall, 200 E. Wells St.

The Alert Neighbor Program is a collaborative initiative between neighborhood block clubs, the Milwaukee Police Department, Department of City Development, Department of Neighborhood Services, Community Prosecution Unit, Office of Violence Prevention and area non-profit organizations to help reduce crime and keep Milwaukee neighborhoods safe. Additionally, the Alert Neighbor Program provides funding for physical improvements in the neighborhood that can range from crime watch signs, cameras, porch lighting and more around the community.

The news conference will include information on how neighborhood block clubs can apply for funding and participate in the program. Representatives from the Milwaukee Police Department, Office of Violence Prevention and area neighbors will join Alderwoman Coggs and Alderman Stamper to re-launch the program.
